

William H. Kose, MD, JD

Vice President of Special Projects
Blanchard Valley Health System

Biography

William H. Kose, MD, JD, serves as vice president of special projects at Blanchard Valley Health System (BVHS). Previously, he has served the health system as chief medical officer of Blanchard Valley Medical Practices from 2012 to 2019, senior vice president of medical affairs from 1991 to 2012 and chief quality officer from 2012 to 2017. Prior to his employment at BVHS, he co-founded Blanchard Valley Medical Associates (BVMA) and practiced internal medicine from 1974 to 2002.

Dr. Kose obtained his medical degree from The Ohio State University and completed his internship and residency at Riverside Hospital in Columbus, Ohio. While practicing internal medicine at BVMA, he obtained his law degree from Ohio Northern University in 1985.

Dr. Kose currently serves on the Hancock County Board of Alcohol, Drug Addiction and Mental Health Services (ADAMHS). He is also a Baldrige Examiner for the Ohio Partnership for Excellence, a member of the Ohio State Medical Association and the Ohio Patient Safety Institute.

Blanchard Valley
HEALTH SYSTEM