

MEET BVHS BOARD MEMBER

Suzanne Gagle

Suzanne Gagle, vice president and general counsel of Marathon Petroleum Corporation, was raised in Toledo, Ohio.

She earned her bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Toledo in 1987 and her Juris Doctor degree from the University of Toledo College of Law in 1992.

Postgraduation, Suzanne began working as a staff attorney for Marathon Petroleum Corporation.

Suzanne completed eight years as a staff attorney before transferring to Marathon Pipe Line LLC in 2002, where she managed a team responsible for pipeline rights-of-way, geographic information system (GIS) and public education.

Following this position in 2003, she returned to law organization as group counsel, litigation.

Eventually, Suzanne was appointed as vice president and general counsel of Marathon Petroleum Corporation in 2016.

Having always supported Blanchard Valley Health System (BVHS)'s mission,

"Everyone should support high-quality health care in our area, as it benefits us all."

vision and values, Suzanne joined the Blanchard Valley Health Foundation board in August 2017 as a way to exemplify these qualities and give back to the community. Although she is relatively new to the board, Suzanne enjoys being a part of the community in this way and is learning about BVHS in depth. As a member of the board, Suzanne describes her responsibilities as "being knowledgeable about BVHS, actively participating during board and committee meetings and acting as an ambassador for the BVHS community."

Outside of work, Suzanne enjoys spending time with her husband, Steve, and their three daughters

Katie, Kimmy and Stephanie. Additionally, she enjoys gardening and traveling. Despite being busy in her leisure time, Suzanne cares deeply about BVHS and values being a board member. "BVHS plays a vital role in our community," she said. "Everyone should support high-quality health care in our area, as it benefits us all."
