

Dave Cytlak

Chief Financial Officer

Biography

Dave Cytlak joined Blanchard Valley Health System in 1999 as a financial manager. Having held many position titles and responsibilities during his time with the organization, Dave became the director of finance before joining the Executive Steering Council as the chief financial officer.

In his current role, Dave's responsibilities include financial accounting and reporting, planning and budgeting, and assisting BVHS be a steward of cost management. He also manages several departments, while also guiding and supporting financial plans.

He holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Toledo.

What Dave enjoys most about working for BVHS is the extraordinary people that surround him. "As our health system grows, I continue to appreciate all the dedicated individuals we have working toward our mission, vision and values each day."

Outside of work, Dave enjoys playing basketball. He and his wife, Barb, have two grown children, Ashley and Adam. Dave and Barb spend as much time as possible with their children and grandchildren, as well as staying active with outdoor activities such as biking, rollerblading and walking.

"I feel fortunate to work at BVHS, an organization that has been so great to me, my family and the community," Dave added. "Thank you to all those who collaborate to serve our patients."
