

Myron Lewis

President and CEO
Blanchard Valley Health System

Biography

Myron D. Lewis, MSW, MBA, FACHE, was named president and chief executive officer of Blanchard Valley Health System in 2021. He holds a bachelor of arts degree in psychology (industrial/organizational) from Michigan State University, a master of science degree in clinical social work (MSW) from Western Michigan University, a master of business administration degree from Indiana Wesleyan University, and is a fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives.

Lewis formerly served as the president of Spectrum Health Zeeland Community Hospital (Zeeland, MI). His previous community affiliations include serving on the board of directors for the “Now for the Next” philanthropic community incubator program, the board of directors for Health Pointe Integrated Care Campus, the board of directors for Lakeshore Radiation Oncology Center, the board of directors for the Zeeland Education Foundation and the board of directors for the Holland/Zeeland Chamber of Commerce. In 2004, Lewis published a book, entitled, “Making Right Turns in Your Relationship.”

Lewis and his wife, Lisa, a registered dietitian, have two grown children. Hanna is a senior at Grand Valley State University majoring in social work, and Sydney is a sophomore at Butler University majoring in psychology/neurosciences. In his spare time, he enjoys hiking and cycling.

