

Kelly Shroll, RD, LD, MBA

Chief Operating Officer, Ambulatory Services

Biography

Kelly Shroll serves as the chief operating officer of ambulatory services for Blanchard Valley Health System (BVHS). She holds a bachelor of science degree in allied health professions from The Ohio State University and a master of business administration degree with a concentration in health care management from the University of Findlay.

Shroll has 20 years of experience with BVHS and more than 30 years of experience in health care. She began her health care career as a team leader in nutrition services at the Toledo Hospital. She joined the BVHS team in 1996 as a clinical nutrition manager. Prior to her current role, she served as director of corporate quality & patient safety, director of support services and other managerial roles within BVHS over the years. Shroll served on The Partnership for Excellence (Baldrige) board of examiners in 2017.

In 2011, she was a William C. Kelley Safety Leadership Award recipient and served as an Ohio Hospital Association annual meeting presenter. Shroll has actively participated in community leadership activities as a member of various state and local boards. She currently serves on the YMCA board, as well as the Community Foundation board.

Blanchard Valley
HEALTH SYSTEM